What is the Spirit Series?

The Spirit Series is a collection of in-ceiling, motorized projection screen designed specifically for installations in-ceiling projection screen on a budget. They are ideal for environments such as hospitals, worship, conference rooms where the screen needs to be hidden for reasons.

Experience Spirit

The Spirit is a series of in-ceiling electric projector screens designed for custom installation into a worship, classroom, or training room ceiling. The screen surface is fiberglass backed to greatly reduce edge curl. The perfectly flat surface is designed to last for years with minimal visual degradation.

The triangular weight bar at the bottom of the screen completely retracts into the case when it is not being used. This imitates the appearance of an expensive trap-door screen at a fraction of the price.

Smooth

The Spirit's convenient wall case allows multiple included plug-in remote allow operation, and the connection to the operation by screen operation cycle of a RS-232 control with all Spirit
